

Jade Child Development Center April 2019

Month Of Young Child

Michigan celebrates the Month of the Young Child. During this month, we recognize the needs and rights of young children and their families. Each week will be a different focus.

Week #1: April 1-7 Physical Development

Friday April 5th: Parade of bikes, obstacle courses, hula hoops and more! Children are welcome to bring their own bicycles!

We will also encourage healthy eating habits, staying hydrated and stretching.

Week #2: April 8-14 Social Development

We will promote positive relationships and recognize acts of caring. Parent's are welcome to volunteer during this week, please see a member of management if you are interested.

Week #3: April 15-21 Emotional Development

Wednesday April 17th: Kite and Pinwheel Day!

We will encourage movement, curiosity, independence and laughter. Please consider donating a kite or pinwheel for this special event.

Week #4: April 22-28 Cognitive Development

Each classroom will be given a blank canvas to create an art together using a variety of tools + materials.
